National Blood Donor Month

January was selected for blood donation awareness because fewer people give blood in January and patients must continue to receive the right blood products! Volunteer blood donors are an essential link between the doctor who orders a blood transfusion and the patient who is dependent upon that blood. Help us celebrate! There are many places to give blood during the month of January. Here are just a few.

Market Street, Frisco Blood Drive – January 6
Garibaldi Bazaar, Dallas – January 14
Lowe's, Granbury – January 19
Medstar Mobile Healthcare – January 26
All Carter BloodCare Donor Centers

c) Carter BloodCare homepage > Blog > National Blood Donor Month blog, end of the blog post

If you donate in January, you will also receive an exclusive Dallas Mavericks t-shirt and a BOGO ticket voucher! When you donate, be sure to redeem your BOGO before February 14.

National Blood Donor Month

January was selected for blood donation awareness because fewer people give blood in January and patients must continue to receive the right blood product, of the right blood type, and at the right time! Holiday travel, inclement weather, school breaks, increased illnesses – all reasons that blood donations decrease in the first month of each year.

Volunteer blood donors are an essential link between the doctor who orders a blood transfusion and the patient who is dependent upon that blood. To help us celebrate, there are many places to give blood during the month of January. Here are just a few:

Market Street, Frisco Blood Drive – January 6
Garibaldi Bazaar, Dallas – January 14
Lowe's, Granbury – January 19
Medstar Mobile Healthcare – January 26
All Carter BloodCare Donor Centers

If you donate in January, you will also receive an exclusive Dallas Mavericks t-shirt and a BOGO ticket voucher! When you donate, be sure to redeem your BOGO before February 14.
